NAME OF VESSEL: EDDIE ALEXANDER BANKS®

This certificate verifies in truth and fact under penalty of perjury, that he Eddie-Alexander is permanently assigned to his earthen vessel (body) that moves in navigation or performance of his work. He shall contribute to the function and operation of his vessel (ship) in commerce or to accomplish any mission in life he chooses. Further, this certificate entitles the seaman identified hereon to all rights, privileges, immunity, duties and responsibilities as a living soul. I deem him to be the master and exclusive officer of his vessel, that is attached to his private American Citizen-Ship as cited above. Further, as a matter of redress of grievances the seaman may institute and prosecute suits and appeals in his own name and for his own benefit for prize, wages or salvage or the enforcement of laws enacted for his health of safety without prepaying fees or cost or furnish security therefor.

na'væl / 'nævəl/ noun; navel. A rounded knotty depression in the center of a person's belly caused by the detachment of the umbilical cord after birth; the umbilicus. Similar: belly button, tummy button or the central point of a place.

of'fiser / 'dfiser/ noun officer. A person holding a position of command or authority in the armed services, in the merchant marine, or on a passenger ship.

cap'tain / 'kaptən/ noun captain. The person in command of a ship. 2. the leader of a team, especially in sports.

ves'sel / 'vesl/ noun vessel. A ship, brig, sloop, or other craft used, or capable of being used, in navigation on water. In order to be a "vessel," for purposes of an action under Jones Act, the structure's purpose must to some reasonable degree be the transportation of passengers, cargo or equipment from place to place across navigable waters. Buna v. Pacific Far East Line, Inc., D.C. Cal., 441 F. Supp. 1360, 1364. Though, the term "vessel," in admiralty law, is not dredges, floating derricks and barges equipped for special purposes or operations are "vessels" within meaning of Jones Act, and persons regularly employed aboard such a vessel in aid of its purposes are "seamen." Hill v. Diamond, C.A. Va., 311 F.2d 789, 791, 792. On the other hand, however, everything that floats is not necessarily a "vessel," in purview of Jones Act. Bennett v. Perini Corp., C.A. Mass., 510 F.2d 114, 116. For example, a floating dry dock which was moored by chains and cables to shipyard dock at time of injury to shipyard employee and which was in use as a dry dock was not a "vessel" and therefore no warranty of seaworthiness arose. Keller v. Dravo Corp., C.A. La., 441 F.2d 1239, 1244. Foreign vessel. A vessel owned by residents in, or sailing under the flag of, a foreign nation. Public vessel. One owned and used by a nation or government for its public service, whether in its navy, its revenue service, or otherwise, limited to ships or vessels engaged in commerce. St. Hilaire Moya v. Henderson, C.A. Ark., 496 F.2d 973, 979. Many special purpose craft, such as dredges, floating derricks and barges equipped for special purposes or operations are "vessels" within meaning of Jones Act, and persons regularly employed aboard such a vessel in aid of its purposes are "seamen." Hill v. Diamond, C.A. Va., 311 F.2d 789, 791, 792. On the other hand, however, everything that floats is not necessarily a "vessel," in purview of Jones Act. Bennett v. Perini Corp., C.A. Dravo Corp.*, C.A. La., 441 F.2d 1239, 1244.

Foreign vessel. A vessel owned by residents in, or sailing under the flag of, a foreign nation.

Public vessel. One owned and used by a nation or government for its public service, whether in its navy, its revenue service, or otherwise.

Flag, law of. In maritime law, the law of that nation or country whose flag is flown by a particular vessel. A shipowner who sends his vessel into a foreign port gives notice by his flag to all who enter into contracts with the master that he intends the law of that flag to regulate such contracts, and that they must either submit to its operation or not contract with him.

Foreign service of process. Service of process for the acquisition of jurisdiction by a court in the United States upon a person in a foreign country is prescribed by Fed.R.Civil P. 4(i) and 28 U.S.C.A. § 1608. Service of process on foreign corporations is governed by Fed.R. Civil P. 4(d)(3). Foreign states. Nations which are outside the United States. Term may also refer to another state; i.e. a sister state. The term "foreign nations," as used in a statement of the rule that the laws of foreign nations should be proved in a certain manner, should be construed to mean all nations and states other than that in which the action is brought; and hence one state of the Union is foreign to another, in the sense of that rule.

A "foreign state" within statute providing for expatriation of American citizen who is naturalized under laws of foreign state is a country which is not the United States, or its possession or colony, an alien country, other than our own. Kletter v. Dulles, D.C. D.C., 111 F.Supp. 593, 598.

Act of state. An act done by the sovereign power of a country, or by its delegate, within the limits of the power vested in him. An act of state cannot be questioned or made the subject of legal proceedings in a court of law. See Act of state doctrine. The judicially created act of state doctrine precludes the courts of this country from inquiring into the validity of governmental acts of a recognized foreign sovereign committed within its own territory. Banco Nacional de Cuba v. Sabbatino, 376 U.S. 398, 84 S.Ct. 923, 11 L.Ed.2d 804; Ricaud v. American Metal Co., 245 U.S. 304, 38 S.Ct. 312, 62 L.Ed. 733; *Oeffen v. To the municipal court Clerk:

An action has been commenced in this court by false and misleading presumption and fraud. The warrant is a counterfeit instrument having no authority in fact and law. I refer you to the video encounter YouTube: <http://youtu.be/UZJ0f7nkGzQ> A counter claim was entered and denied this amounts to a violation of due process. The record show that the acting office has violated his oath of office and is indebted to a damaged party. The acting judge Thomas L. Verge has conspired with Gary Huehnerhoff acting police officer using positions of public trust to deprive an individual of his rights and security under color of law. Find attach an Article IV, Warrants for cause stated on the the face of the warrants. Call to bring forth the oaths of office and hazard bond or cities insurance to settle the claim.

Cover Letter to Record

There is a man moving in commerce acting and doing business as POLICE OFFICER. He would not identify himself in equal fashion as he demanded of me, a free and independent native American man on the land not subject to private corporate policy or other fictitious constructs. This person is believed to be Gary Huehnerhoff who unlawfully detained a man and women with the intent to extort MONEY. I have no business or agreement with this individual for goods or services. This individual has made a false claim that a crime was committed and attached an innocent third party. There was no injured party nor any damaged property. The summons and citations have been processed by a private Banker with the attachment of an invoice and terms. These are now returned for processing and closure. Failure or Refusal to process may lead to an audit or prosecution in equity.

Please find enclosed a CD (Dossier on one Banks; Eddie-Alexander) many document are settled in law pursuant to Title 28 USC §1739, 1733.

A Notice of Objection Form D-119 has been provided to ensure due process. Equity appears to correct that which the law has no remedy. Failure to complete the form and state your objection as to law and facts established shall estoppel any further action to proceed on the case now before us.

Equity suit is commenced.
